

Pax Christi Southern California 2026 Fall Assembly

Rev. John Dear is a long-time peace activist, priest, Nobel Peace Prize nominee and author of 40 books including most recently, The Gospel of Peace and Universal Love. He is the director of www.beatitudescenter.org, where he offers regular zoom programs and a free weekly podcast, "The Nonviolent Jesus Podcast." He lives in California. See www.johndear.org

Continuing the Legacy of Fr. Chris Ponnet

Our Hope Is In the Nonviolent Jesus:
Living in Hope as We Carry on Jesus'
Campaign of Nonviolence
In a World of Violence, War, Poverty,
Racism and Climate Chaos
With Father John Dear

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 26TH

10:30 AM PDT - 1 PM PDT

Pax Christi Southern California video conference

During this live video Pax Christi conference, author and activist Fr. John Dear will invite us to reflect on hope and what gives us hope; how we can choose hope personally and globally; and how we can generate hope for humanity and creation. He will suggest that we place our hope in the nonviolent Jesus and his grassroots campaign of creative nonviolence.

This is a virtual event- all are welcome

No charge- goodwill offerings appreciated

RSVP at QR code for zoom link

MORE INFORMATION:

Cathy Crayton @ 909-621-1727

RSVP LINK

<https://stcamilluscenter.networkforgood.com/events/102544-pax-christi-southern-california-2026-campaign-nonviolence-event>

Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondelet

PSR LA
Physicians for Social Responsibility Los Angeles